

POLICY SMS/OHS

The top management of SES ENERGY, a. s., as a supplier of investment units and their parts for power engineering, heating and power engineering, chemical and petrochemical industry, is fully aware of their liability to create favourable working conditions for safe working surrounding and health of employees that are guarantee of higher productivity, efficiency and quality of work in all the fields of manufacturing as well as non-manufacturing spheres.

By constant improvement of occupational safety and health protection management within its business activities, our company intends to achieve safer and healthier working surrounding, satisfactory working conditions and protection of persons at work in accordance with the general company policy and the quality and environmental policy.

For this purpose the top management defines the following policy of occupational safety and health protection:

- to lay bigger stress on importance of health protection at work
- to comply with all the applicable legal regulations concerning occupational safety and health protection
- to promote prevention and by means of aim-directed analysis of found shortcomings to prevent from accidents and undesirable events
- to improve implementation of proper occupational safety and health protection, particularly to develop further the processes of risk and jeopardy identification, risk assessment and evaluation, planning and determination of protective measures
- to increase qualification, competence and commitment of employees to perform their duties that might affect occupational safety and health protection

SES ENERGY, a. s. management undertakes to establish a performance program of the policy, to keep all the employees informed and to make the policy available for public

Tlmače, 20.4. 2017

Ing. Milan Jadud'
General Manager