

Environmental Policy

The top management of SES ENERGY, a.s. is fully aware of its liability to maintain its important position on the European market of complex suppliers of assembly work and services for construction, reconstruction, repairs of boilers for both power and combined power and heating power plants, incinerating plants and other industries.

To comply with strategic intentions of the company, the quality and safety policy and to achieve continuous improvement of environmental management system along with improvement of environmental behaviour of the company, the top management of SES ENERGY, a.s. undertakes

1. to identify regularly environmental aspects, to draw relevant risks therefrom and to accept planned activities to eliminate environmental aspects;
2. to create organization and material conditions to observe relevant binding requirements, which the company is obliged to fulfil;
3. during construction and assembly jobs as well as service activities to enforce binding requirements and procedures, to avoid useless emergency situations and to approach environmental protection responsibly including separation and disposal of waste in environmentally suitable way
4. within pollution prevention, to reduce or to remove fully impacts of our activities and products on environment through producing the products and rendering the services of lower environmental burdens
5. to reduce consumption of energy and raw material through selection of more favourable chemical agents and mixtures, by more economical utilization of energy and material sources;
6. to prepare and to improve permanently procedures to prevent emergency risk and emergency situation;
7. to educate employees in the field of environmental protection and encourage them to fulfil the task in this field while paying attention to prevention and risk reduction .

The top management of SES ENERGY, a.s. undertakes to keep all their employees and the persons working for or on behalf of SES ENERGY, a.s. informed of the policy, to make the policy available for public and to update it.

In Tlmače, May 2017

Ing. Milan Jadud
General Manager